CASE HISTORY

Playing with a small reticule, cat's cradle.
To carry without concealment, no pig in this poke. Even at recreation, when mouth's allowed, mind's tied to the hands. A tisket a tasket or the devil makes work. Passed round, as for collection. If his lips are silent, he chatters with his fingertips. We have an earful. He's got the whole world in his hands, open to him.
Gift-wrapped, like Ada's finger, so he can undo her. Breach of flesh, bone, medical discretion. I swear you are mistaken. Mind your language labile. There are six sides to this story.
Shut up & in here. No more network, a fine line only. ~~Strikeout.~~
